

IMPROV WORKSHOP WITH
JOHN HAYNES
SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 2008
10 AM - 3 PM
CY JUNIOR HIGH CAFETERIA
CASPER, WY

THIS WORKSHOP IS FOR STUDENTS FROM 3RD GRADE THRU COLLEGE, DESTINATION IMAGINATION TEAMS AND TEAM MANAGERS, DRAMA COACHES AND TEACHERS FOR SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES, COMMUNITY THEATRE GROUPS, AND ANYONE ELSE INTERESTED IN IMPROV.

John Haynes is the Director of the Brave New Institute School of Improvisation in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The Brave New Institute is part of the Brave New Workshop Theatre which is the oldest satirical comedy theatre in the country. For 49 years they have been training students in the art of improvisation and sketch writing and producing original sketch comedy shows. John bring his experience as an improviser, writer and director to each class he teaches with an upbeat style that engages the audience and leaves them with useful tools for using improvisation as a way to increase creativity, stage presence, and reacting to situations and suggestions from a place of truth. John has also trained and worked with several Destination Imagination Teams and Team Managers and Directors including teaching at the DI Global Event. www.bravenewworkshop.com/

John will be presenting material and information using improvisational skills and tools for individuals of the following topics.

- Increased brainstorming skills and team building
- Increased confidence on stage
- Finding the truth of the scene
- Approaching brainstorming and idea generations from a yes, and philosophy
- Using Improvisation on the stage as well as in life
- Trusting your instincts and eliminating over analyzing of one's ideas
- Sharing insight into skills utilized as he works with the Brave New Institute's Youth Performance Program
- Improv Exercises and Games
